No.ASE.304/2016/58: There are different types of educational institutions such as Higher Secondary School/Madrassa, High School/Madrassa, Arabic College, Title Madrassa, Senior Madrassa etc. under Secondary education. It is seen that the holidays pattern, timing, duration etc of these institutions are different. It is considered desirable to maintain uniformity in observing working hours and holidays of all such provincialised/Government educational institutions under the Secondary Education.

Therefore, after careful consideration of all aspects, the Government of Assam in the Secondary Education Department have decided that henceforth, all provincialised/Government educational institutions under the Secondary Education will observe mandatory holiday on Sunday as observed by other offices of the State as per holiday list published by the Government in General Administration Department. No institution shall observe holiday which are not prescribed by the General Administration Department. However, the educational institutions shall follow summer vacation or such other vacation with prior approval of the Academic Calendar by the State Government in the Education Department.

Further, for the academic year 2017, all educational institutions will observe working days and holidays as prepared by the respective Boards with prior approval of the State Government. The Board/Council will prepare academic calendar indicating the holidays and vacation maintaining uniformity with the holidays for all provincialised/Government educational institutions and submit the same for approval of the Government by 15/12/2016

This will come into force with immediate effect.

P. K. BORTHAKUR,

Principal Secretary to the Government of Assam,
Secondary Education Department.
